

The Finishing Trades Institute of New England is pleased to present online class offerings

Your training department has continued to adapt to these challenging times first by offering the Coronavirus Preparedness for Employers and Employees Safety course.

We are pleased to now offer two new courses via the ZOOM online webinar platform: Sexual Harassment and Labor History

Each instructor led class runs a little more than an hour in length and will require you to call the Training office @ 617-524-0248 and register for the next available offering.

1st offering: Sexual Harassment

May 8, 3:00 - 4:30 pm

May 9, 8:00 - 9:30 am

Each class is limited in size, additional classes will be added as demand increases.

Labor History class times: TBD
